He needs You
Joshua

Joshua has been in foster care since age 8. In the past 4 years, he has lived in 6 different homes. He’s been separated from his two younger siblings and continues to struggle in school because of constantly moving around. He desperately wants a forever family. When Joshua grows up, he wants to be a social worker so he can help other foster children get adopted.

Joshua needs someone to look out for his best interest and help him find a safe and permanent home. He needs a CASA volunteer.

They need you:

Grace and Lauren were removed from their home just two months ago. Not only are they sisters, but also best friends. They do not have any family members in the area, so they are currently in a temporary foster home. Their social worker is trying to find a placement for them to stay together because the girls really need each other. Grace and Lauren need someone who can help them build trusting relationships and adjust to living in a foster home.

She needs you:

Ava is just 5 months old. She was removed from her mother at birth because she tested positive for opioids. Her foster mother is having trouble finding the right formula to keep Ava at a healthy weight. She needs to see the doctor every two weeks. Ava needs an advocate to monitor her development and health care.
